

Marks on Stone:

Hidden Stories in Historic Church Graffiti

Sunday 28th June

11am-12pm

St Mary's Church, Astley

An illustrated talk exploring the graffiti found in historic churches and what it reveals about the everyday lives, beliefs, and fears of the ordinary people who worshipped and gathered there.

About the speaker

Dr Claire Strachan is a church buildings and heritage specialist with a particular interest in medieval church fabric, hidden histories, and the quiet stories of the ordinary people who worshipped in these sacred spaces through the centuries.

Part of St Mary's and Astley Castle
Open Days!
26th-28th June

Run by the Churchyard Biodiversity and Heritage Project